

English Policy

We aim to teach and prepare your child today, for their tomorrow

Philosophy of English:

English is a core subject in the National Curriculum.

English at New Invention Junior School is a subject that children both use and enjoy, and is also a tool to be used in lots of ways in the world beyond the classroom. Our school views the acquisition of literacy skills to be of the utmost importance and so the teaching of all aspects of English is given a high priority across our curriculum.

Main Aims

Our aims agree with those set out in the National Curriculum:

- · Read easily, fluently and with good understanding
- Develop the habit of reading widely and often, for both pleasure and information
- Acquire a wide vacabulary, an understanding of grammar and knowledge of linguistic conventions for reading, writing and spoken language
- Appreciate our rich and waried literary heritage
- Write clearly, accurately and coherently, adapting their language and style in and for a range of contexts, purposes and audiences
- Use discussion in order to learn; they should be able to elaborate and explain clearly their understanding and ideas
- Are competent in the arts of speaking and listening, making formal presentations, demonstrating to others and participating in debate.
   Reading

Intent

To promote high standards of language and literacy by equipping pupils with a strong command of the spoken and written language, and to develop their love of literature through widespread reading for enjoyment. Children should read easily, fluently and with good understanding and develop a habit of reading. We want children to acquire rich vocabulary and value our literary heritage.

Implementation

- Clear Text Mapping for both Book Study and DEAR
  Bell books to allow progression across the school
  Use of VIPERS to ensure all content domain areas are explored and explicitly taught.
- Reading Plus to aid and build up children's fluency Stimulating, rich Reading scheme – Callins Big Cat
- Rich Reading Realm / Nan-Fiction library
- Progression in reading lessons staff know why certain texts are used and the value of the reading skill gained from lessons.
  - Reading Rewards (vending machine)

Lmpact

Essential, basic and fundamental skills achieved to allow children to achieve ARE before moving on to next year group.

All children to be fluent readers and to have access to a bank of rich vocabulary.

Exposure to a range of texts (both in English lessons and the wider curriculum, authors and reading styles to allow children to read widely. Pupils enjoy reading. – pupil voice

Writing

Lntent

To promote high standards of language and literacy by equipping pupils with a strong command of the spoken and written language, and to develop their love of literature through widespread reading for enjoyment. Children should be able to write accurately, clearly and coherently making conscious choices based on audience and purpose and explain their ideas as well as using speaking & listening activities.

Implementation

- Clear progression of text types (non-fiction, fiction and poetry written pieces). All completed in Y3/4 and repeated in Y5/6 with higher expectation
- Use of high quality WAGOLLS
- Editing progression document to ensure children are taught how to edit
- Befare/after writing slips writing as a reader
- Sentence progression following Alan Peat
- Grammar pragressian documents fallowed & recapped
- Spelling No Nansense Spelling (backed up with Literacu Planet)

Impact

Essential, basic and fundamental skills achieved to allow children to achieve ARE before moving on to next year group.

All children to be competent writers using high standards of English and can explain deliberate choices made when writing.

Exposure to a range of high quality reading literatures and WAGOLLS to support writing. Pupils enjoy writing. – pupil voice

The school aims to develop in all children a positive attitude towards English by making it an interesting and relevant subject as well as providing opportunities for all children within the school to develop to their full potential in English. Therefore achieving the overall school aim: "We aim to teach and prepare your child today, for their tomarrow."

We aim to:

- · Read and write with confidence, fluency and understanding
- · Be interested in books, read with enjoyment and evaluate and justify preferences
- Know and understand a range of genres in fiction and poetry; understand and be familiar with some of the ways that narratives are structured through basic literary ideas of setting, character and plot.
- To understand and be able to use a range of non-fiction text
- Plan, draft, revise and edit their own writing.

- · Have an interest in words and word meanings and a growing vocabulary
- · Understand the sound and spelling system and use this to read and spell accurately
- Have fluent and legible handwriting
- · Tell stories, both real and imagined
- Act out roles in imaginative play and drama work
- Read and listen to poetry
- Read aloud with expression
- Explore, develop and clarify ideas
- Predict outcomes and discuss possibilities
- · Describe events, observations and experiences
- Make explanations for choices made
- · Give reasons for opinions and actions

National Curriculum and Planning

New Invention Junior School adheres to the guidelines laid down in the National Curriculum for English (2014). The objectives laid out are used to form the basis of our; Yearly skeletal Plans, Half Termly Plans, Weekly Plans and Daily Lesson Plans. Curriculum overviews are available on the school website and accessible to staff. English will link to other areas of the curriculum and have an impact on learning in other lessons.

Assessment (see also the NIJ Assessment Policy)

Staff at New Invention, use the results of both ongoing teacher assessment and formative assessment to help them make informed decisions about the progress of individual children, to plan the next developmental stage and to evaluate their delivery of certain aspects of the National Curriculum.

- At present the framework for assessment is as follows:
   Statutory end of Key Stage assessment occurs in year six. Supported by termly, moderated teacher assessments.
   Reading and Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar are assessed using statutory tests. Writing is teacher assessed and moderated by the local authority or by moderation working groups.
- On entry into Year 3, pupils are assessed using school devised reading and writing assessments and against National curriculum and age related expectation standards
- New Invention Point System (NPS) assessment sheets are used to teacher assess the pupils termly, supported by non-statutory testing. This is completed half-termly and moderated internally on a termly basis.
- Both forms of assessments are executed at the end of the year to measure progress and these assessments are passed on to the next class teacher to ensure continuity.
- Half-termly grammar/spelling assessments
- Termly reading fluency assessments completed using the resource to match our reading scheme, alongside Reading
   Plus fluency children moved on the book bands as appropriate
- Continuous assessment takes place daily through interaction with children and exercise books, using teacher and pupil daily self-assessment in the form of WALTs.

- The English co-ordinator completes termly book monitoring to check progress, curriculum coverage etc and offer support.
- A clear marking policy is followed, providing ongoing challenge for all pupils.
- In school authority-trained moderators
- All assessment tools are formative, leading to developments in planning and intervention groups.

-Record Keeping

Records for each child are maintained termly, using a whole school tracking system - entered on to Arbor termly. Children are recorded against the main learning outcomes, via NPS assessments.

Records are kept for each child using 'tick sheets' for writing assessments in the front of their exercise books.

Practical literacy is also recorded and added to the class 'SeeSaw' account.

At the end of each term, children's attainment steps and progress towards their target and age related expectation is delivered to parents in the form of a written report and follow-up parents evening.

Monitoring

The English co-ordinator, Headteacher and SMT take responsibility for the monitoring of the English curriculum and the standards achieved by the pupils. Monitoring takes the form of:

- Lesson observations;
- Medium term planning (see curriculum overviews on school website);
- Book/work scrutiny;
- Learning Walks.
- Pupil interviews
- Data Analysis
- Moderation

All monitoring fed back to staff either individually or collectively depending on need, and should be used to identify strengths and areas for development or to inform leader's action plan to move English forward.

Meeting the Needs of All

All pupils, irrespective of age, ability gender and ethnic origin are entitled to participate fully in and benefit from a broad range of appropriate English activities at every Key Stage of their English experiences. At New Invention Junior we include SEND (Special educational needs and disabilities) LAC (Looked after children) and those pupils with speaking and listening difficulties, and G&T (Gifted and talented).

Within years 4 to 6, classes are grouped by ability, in to one more able set and two middle mix classes. Work is then further differentiated, within classes to ensure access to the curriculum for all. By grouping the children through ability and using intervention strategies children can work at the appropriate level and make progress.

English lessons aim to meet the needs of all pupils whilst delivering an inclusive objective. All pupils in the class aim to achieve the same objective, with teaching being adaptive so as:

- · Higher attainers are challenged and learning aims to go deeper;
- SEND pupils are supported and scaffolded through a range of techniques and resources;
- TAs are deployed effectively to support pupils' needs;
- Intervention groups aim to address needs and close gaps to improve progress AND are monitored to ensure effectiveness;
- Practical resources used effectively to move learning forward.

Teaching Methods

Writing

Writing is taught throughout the whole curriculum, although pupils are taught writing skills within English lessons. Each term in each year group takes on a theme and a book(s) is chosen for which all English work will be based on to create continuity. Authentic "Writing for Real" tasks are then created from this to build up the Non-Fiction texts and fictional/creative writing should also be created at least once per half term. The English Co-ordinator has specified text-types that must be covered by each year group within a theme to ensure coverage of all text types across the school. Staff are encouraged to look at the PFAI (purpose, form, audience, intent) documents and share the criteria with children to ensure they have a real purpose for writing. Children are also encouraged to write and perform different forms of poetry related to each theme.

Sentence structures are progressively taught throughout the school which are inline with the National Curriculum but take the form of Alan Peat's sentences. These are up on display, taught and planned for within pieces of writing so children can use these independently.

Grammarsaurus is used for text deconstruction and some modelled texts.

Staff are encouraged to plan regular 'Writing for Pleasure' sessions as lesson starters / morning challenges to allow children to be expressive and show skills they are taught without the constraints of specific lesson criteria.

Children are expected to be taught to edit their writing by following the Editing Progression document. Evidence of this should be regularly and clearly seen in written tasks. Children will edit in a Green Pen.

Editing Writing Progression New Invention Learning Academy

Editing writing does not just mean making corrections to errors in written work e.g. changing a lower-case letter into a capital letter at the start of a sentence. Editing can also include revision of longer sections of work to further improve what has already been written and can also include additions to the original piece of work. It may help to use the following 3 terms in your editing and feedback sessions: correct, improve, add. This will link to our CUPS (corrections) and ARMS (improving and adding)

	Editing Expectations	Editing & Responding to Feedback
Year 2	From the start of Spring Term, children should begin to independently edit their writing to check for errors and correct:  Capital letters, full stops, question marks and exclamation marks.  Spellings (key words, learnt rules and spellings from the YI/2 curriculum). No dictionaries should be used. Word mats / vocabulary sheets / spelling rule sheets and phonics mats should be provided in editing sessions.  * Sentence Sense	<ul> <li>Green Pen for editing writing as below:</li> <li>Carrect handwriting (especially correct letter formation &amp; joins; punctuation formation)</li> <li>Carrect punctuation CL . ?!</li> <li>Carrect spellings (YI/2 common exception words, spelling and phonics rules taught)</li> <li>*Children who are working confidently at EXS for Y2 Summer Term can begin to carrect sentence sense by re-writing the whole sentence below (especially checking verb tenses to indicate time, including in the continuous form e.g. I am walking, I was walking, I will be walking).</li> </ul>

Year 3	From the Autumn term, children should begin to independently correct their writing using the Year 2 editing expectations above for punctuation, spelling, handwriting and sentence sense.(CUPS)  From the Spring Term, children should begin to include improvements to their writing in the form of vocabulary inline with the Year 3 NC objectives.	Carrect handwriting errors and spend time practising these Carrect spellings - common exception words, spelling rules taught and words from the Y3/4 word lists. Dictionaries should only be used if confident. Word mats / vocabulary mats / spelling rule sheets and phonics mats should be provided in editing sessions. Carrect any punctuation taught so far. Carrect sentence sense - verbs, plurals and missing words. Improve vocabulary such as adjectives and adverbs. (ARMS)
Year 4	From the Autumn term, children should begin to independently correct their writing using the Year 2 and 3 editing expectations above for punctuation, spelling, vocabulary and sentence sense. (CUPS)  It is the expectation that by Year 4, joined, legible handwriting is a given. Children who require further support should continue to practise handwriting and letter joins as part of their editing sessions but also have discrete time/intervention allocated to this.	<ul> <li>Carrect spellings - words from the Y3/4 word lists. Word mats / vocabulary / spelling rule sheets and phonics mats should be provided in editing sessions. Dictionaries should be provided for children to use the first 2 or 3 letters of a word to check its spelling (once this skill has been taught as part of the Y4 curriculum). Dictionaries are not useful for pupils who cannot yet spell, since thee pupils do not have sufficient knowledge of spelling to use them efficiently. Other spelling resources should be provided,</li> <li>Carrect any punctuation taught so far</li> <li>Carrect sentence sense - verbs, plurals and missing words</li> <li>Improve vocabulary such as adjectives, verbs, adverbs, and adverbial phrases.</li> <li>Improve independently a sentence, to demonstrate an aspect of writing from the task's success criteria that may not have been met / has been met but further examples would improve the writing (this could be teacher led) (ARMS)</li> </ul>

From the Autumn term, children should begin to independently correct their writing using the editing expectations from previous year with additional expectations to be modelled and taught throughout the year.

It is the expectation that by Year 5, joined, legible handwriting is a given. Children who require further support should continue to practise handwriting and letter joins as part of their editing sessions but also have discrete time/intervention allocated to this.

Green Pen for editing writing as below:

- Carrect spellings from the Y3/4 and 5/6 word lists. Word mats / wocabulary /spelling rule sheets and phonics mats should be provided in editing sessions. Dictionaries should also be provided for children to use the first 3 or 4 letters of a word to check its spelling.
- Correct any punctuation taught so far
- Carrect sentence sense verbs, plurals, missing words, comma splicing and complex sentence errors.
- Improve vocabulary, using a thesaurus or other vocabulary resources provided
- Imprave independently a sentence or sentences, to demonstrate an aspect of writing from the task's success criteria (this could be teacher led)
- Add in words, phrases or sentences to a specific section or paragraph identified by the teacher as needed improvements. Feedback in books or as part of a whole class feedback session should clearly identify what aspect of writing is needed to improve the section of the child's work.
- *Far children working at GDS standard in Y5, and for children working at EXS or GDS in Y6, to improve and add whole sections or paragraphs using ARMS, identified by the teacher in the first instance, but moving towards being independently able to identify whole sections or paragraphs that need improving or adding to their work, by the Summer term.

Handwriting (see also - Presentation Policy)

Handwriting is expected to be taught within English lessons and not discretely unless necessary and done so in the form of an intervention. No specific scheme is followed, although 'Bubble Handwriting' is encouraged to ensure children are forming letters appropriately (see Presentation Policy) and leave KS2 with legible, joined handwriting that meets end of Key Stage 2 expectations.

Staff should model the expectation of Handwriting in their teaching, modelling and marking. Worksheets / documents presented to the children should use the 'Join It' or 'Open Dyslexic' fonts.

Reading

Pupils are all provided with a reading book from the Collins Big Cat Reading Scheme purchased in March 2016. This is a progressive scheme and encourages children to read widely, however children are also encouraged to read a 'free' reading book of their choice, especially the higher ability children who are expected to read from the 'Rich

Reading Realm'. Children have reading skill sessions within school which teach them the specific skills they need to deconstruct, analyse and respond to various texts linked to the content domain. During reading lessons, children should be modelled to by the teacher reading aloud as well as children completing 'choral' and 'echo' reading to build up their own fluency.

Reading is taught through the use of 'VIPERS' to allow breadth of teaching across the content domain as well as lessons allowing for discussion, questioning, debating and other skills to interpret a text. Other reading skills are incorporated in English lessons when interrogating the book that is being studied and therefore Reading skills are supporting writing. EAL children are also catered for by having a scheme in school for them from November 2015.

Staff are also encouraged to participate in the daily DEAR Bell activity whereby they read aloud to their class at some point during the day – mainly aimed at the end of the day. The books shared have been stipulated by the English Co-ordinator to ensure progression and avoid repeating texts as children move through school. In recent years, phonics has become more of an issue in KS2 with more children not passing the phonics test in KS1 before arriving with us. Appropriate phonic intervention is in place to allow these children to catch up and apply skills taught in these sessions back in their English lessons.

Independent reading / reading for pleasure times / 'Book Talk' sessions are planned for each day/week to ensure children are reading during the day – especially for those who find it harder to read at home.

It is an expectation that children are heard reading aloud at least once a week, and at least once a fortnight by their class teacher. It is also an expectation that children read at home and that this reading is monitored by their parent/carer and their class teacher. There will be rigorous checking of this in school by the class teacher, English Co-ordinator and SMT. Children considered to be in the bottom 20% in terms of their attainment for reading will be heard read more often than others to support accelerated progress.

In Autumn 2019, we purchased Reading Plus as a supplement to our Reading curriculum as a resource that builds fluency and speed as well as comprehension and vocabulary skills. This is an invaluable resource and is planned for within school but it is an expectation that children use this at home too in order to progress at a more accelerated rate. Staff are expected to monitor usage of their own individual class and ensure children who do not use it regularly are picked up on and encouraged to do so.

Children are requested to record any home reading in their Reading Record. This can be reading from their books from school, books from home, or any reading tasks completed on Reading Plus. Parents are also encouraged to hear their child read on a regular basis at home and record their comments in the Reading Record. Statements have been stuck in to the front of Reading Records to support parents with appropriate comments to log after hearing their child read as well as questions they could ask their child to check understanding. Teachers monitor the home reading of all children in their class. Not necessarily after every book finished, but children are provided with a Reading Journal with 88 tasks inside that could be completed once they have finished their book.

Picture News is a weekly newspaper resource that is sent to class teachers to share with their class. Staff share this on their SeeSaw pages and this is another means of reading - not just a book.

Staff are also encouraged to regularly read children's fiction to keep up to date with the books on offer. They can then recommend books to children within school. Recommendations can also be made through them uploading to the Staff CPD SeeSaw page for other staff to see.

Vocabulary is taught using Reading Plus as well as 'Word Wizards', Word of the Day resources and other tasks. Other subject leads have identified subject specific/technical vocabulary which needs to be taught and staff should identify vocabulary from texts used in English that needs to be taught / pre-taught AND revisited at a later date.

Speaking and Listening

Speaking and listening is addressed through all aspects of teaching. Pupils are given the opportunity to work in groups, develop drama skills and use expression in a range of different situations. Staff should plan appropriate Speaking and Listening activities to ensure children are meeting the requirements of the National Curriculum. These can be taught in all aspects of the curriculum - not just in English lessons.

Spelling

See also - additional spelling policy.

Why children need to learn to spell correctly?

- · Poor spelling creates a bad impression it's one of the first things a reader notices
- · Anxiety about spelling inhibits a child's writing, especially their choice of words
- . Even in these days of word processors, there are still times when we need to write

To improve and develop their spelling children need to:

- Develop an interest in words
- · Feel safe about trying new words, not just words they're sure about
- Learn about, the way words are built up using syllables
- Know about the basic spelling patterns of English
- · Have a range of memorising strategies
- · Explore the meanings of words
- · Understand prefixes and suffixes
- · Write for their own enjoyment, without the fear that they will be criticised
- Read for pleasure

What are the expectations of how spelling and phonics are taught at New Invention Junior school?

- All pupils should have at least 2 x 30 minute sessions on spelling work each week.
- All pupils should have a spelling test at least once per fortnight, based upon their specific to be learnt at home and in school.
- · All pupils should have a list of spellings to specifically meet their spelling needs.
- Pupils should be aware of many different strategies to help them to learn spellings.
- Pupils should be aware on how to gain support/guidance for their spelling.
- Children should develop spellings from objectives appropriate to their learning and through the marking of their work by a teacher.
- If a child is a member of an English support group check with the adult who runs this for spellings/patterns they are accessing.

- Access online resource 'Spelling Shed' at home to practice set word lists and build spelling knowledge and interest
- Curriculum (orange words) for Y3/4 and Y5/6 should also be explicitly taught and used correctly when writing.
- Teachers should identify specific spellings for individual children or whole class spelling needs which should be added to spelling lists.

How should phonics and spelling be taught?

- Teaching should be focussed, pacy and fun!
- There needs to be clear continuity and progression teaching should be based on children's strengths and weaknesses rather than their age or year group, and objectives should be drawn from the school schemes of work Spelling Shed
- · A variety of groupings should be used including whole class teaching, group work and paired work.
- · Children can work in ability groups if this would contribute to effective teaching and learning
- A variety of teaching methods should be used including direct exposition, games and investigation of spelling rules and patterns.
- The use of spelling journals to be used to record spelling learning and investigating
- Children should be taught methods to enable them to learn new spellings
- Specific focus lessons should be (and are included in 'Spelling Shed') for the teaching of the 'orange' compulsory National Curriculum words for Y3/4 and Y5/6.
- Children who have not passes the Key Stage | Phonics Screening Test should continue with a government approved phonics scheme (Fresh Start) with a trained member of staff. This learning should be supplemented with learning in class and children assessed regularly for quick progression.

Objectives (What the children will be learning)

Lesson objectives are shared with the pupils at a relevant point of the lesson. Such criteria should be addressed at points throughout the lesson, with the children.

Main Teaching

Teachers may employ a range of delivery techniques for the main teaching activity, to introduce or consolidate learning:

- Teacher led didactic teaching: whereby the teacher delivers explicit concepts and methods to the whole class, while differentiating questioning;
- Pupil led learning: whereby the teacher begins with a challenge or text type/structure and pupils use a range of techniques to investigate and construct their own piece, with support materials and adults available throughout;
- Teacher led small groups: whereby smaller groups within the class have the teacher led focus whilst others investigate or consolidate learning.

By employing a range of such methods throughout the English topics, it enables the needs of all the children to met, therefore allowing them to progress at a faster rate.

· Independent Activity

Pupils are given a substantial amount of lesson time to independently practice, improve or consolidate concepts and skills, via a range of differentiated activities. This may be supported by further direct teaching of whole class or small groups, at suitable times within the lesson, on order to enable the pupils to progress further.

Plenary

At a suitable point within the lesson, the teacher should reinforce the learning objective to aid pupil's progression and enable them to achieve success.

To close the lesson the teacher will emphasise the teaching point of the lesson and apply the objective to other situations or pose a challenge to extend or consolidate learning.

Cross-Curricular work

Teachers are encouraged to extend English learning beyond the main lesson. English learning takes place during morning challenges, whereby children are set problems, challenges which build upon existing knowledge or invite them to consolidate or address issues with prior learning.

Pupils are also encouraged to work on areas of spelling and grammar within shorter time allocations within the school day, whereby they can access questions at speed and be challenged with grammar errors and omissions.

Cross-curricular evidence of English is also expected and the English co-ordinator asks staff to plan for this at the start of each term and this is monitored. Expectations for the quality of high-level reading and writing evidence is expected across the school and can strengthen teacher assessment and moderation, however this should not be to the detriment of the foundation subject learning content. This should be persevered at all costs.

English will be used to enhance foundation subjects, and should apply previously taught skills independently, with the English expectation pitched at current year group level where this supports the foundation subject objective.

Use of I.C.T.

ICT should be embedded within the English curriculum, including the use of IWB, iPads and cameras. All of which can be used to aid pupils' writing and research.

Children's work may also be completed on, and/or uploaded on to the SeeSaw platform as not all work will be in written form. Various software/websites may also be used to supplement learning.

Talking Tins and other more sensory resources may be used for lower ability/SEND children

Work presentation

Throughout the majority of English written work, pupils' books should be set out as below. Some work, however, may not be suitable to fit this format so should therefore be set out using an appropriate structure recommended by the teacher. Worksheets should be kept to a minimum, only using them if it is unsuitable for the pupils to set it out themselves. Further details on this can be found in the schools' Presentation Policy.
