Date Adopted: September 2024

Mission: to educate all our primary children for life, inspired by expert professionals, in a place where everyone flourishes!

Vision

- A family of schools, proud to be working together as one entity, in the right conditions for deep and purposeful collaboration
- To belong to a great place to learn, work and grow.
- To improve and sustain high educational standards across the Trust, through evidence-informed practice.
- To continuously improve teaching and learning, ensuring that every pupil has the best possible education.
- To hold trust on behalf of our children, achieving the best for and from our people, so that everyone can flourish.
- To empower our children and our people to create a better future.
- To advance the education system, as part of our civic duty, for the wider public benefit

Values

- Belonging: where all our people feel connected, valued, trusted and fulfilled, with a shared purpose to achieve excellence, in a place of psychological safety.
- Flourishing: where all our people thrive and continue to grow through the development of their intellectual potential and live well, building strong relationships as well-rounded human beings.
- Collaboration: by design, to ensure that all our people are supported and openly share ideas and practice; that no school - no child - is left behind, building together the pipeline that develops the next generation of leaders, global citizens, influencers and innovators.
- Evidence-informed: conceptual models of quality and improvement that can be shared and embedded. Deliberate and intentional knowledge-building to create expertise through cultures and communities of improvement, using the active ingredients of professional development.

1. Policy statement

- 1.1 It is the Academy's policy to ensure that all employees have access to a procedure to help deal with any grievances relating to their employment fairly and without unreasonable delay. Where you make us aware that you have a complaint we will investigate any formal grievance that you raise, hold a meeting to discuss it with you, inform you in writing of the outcome, and give you a right of appeal if you are not satisfied.
- 1.2 Issues that may cause grievances include:
- (a) terms and conditions of employment;
  - (b) health and safety;
  - (c) work relations;
  - (d) new working practices;
  - (e) working environment;
  - (f) organisational change; and
  - (g) discrimination.
- 1.3 This procedure does not form part of an employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time following consultation. The employer may also vary application of this procedure, including any time scales for action, as appropriate.
- 1.4 The policy has been implemented following consultation with staff and recognised trade unions. It has been formally adopted by the Trust Board.

2. Who is covered by the procedure?

- 2.1 This procedure applies to all employees regardless of length of service. It does not apply to agency workers or self-employed contractors.

3. Using this procedure

- 3.1 Employees should raise matters promptly and without unreasonable delay. The employer will deal with matters in the same way.
- 3.2 Complaints that amount to an allegation of misconduct on the part of another employee will be investigated and dealt with under the Disciplinary Procedure and you will be informed if this is the case.
- 3.3 This Grievance Procedure should not be used to complain about dismissal or disciplinary action or the outcomes of other procedures where there will be relevant appeal procedures in place. If you are dissatisfied with any disciplinary action, you should submit an appeal under the Disciplinary Procedure.
- 3.4 Where an employee raises a grievance during a disciplinary process the disciplinary process may be temporarily suspended in order to deal with the grievance. Where the grievance and disciplinary cases are related it may be appropriate to deal with both issues concurrently.
- 3.5 The employer operates a separate Whistleblowing Policy to enable employees to report illegal activities, wrongdoing or malpractice. However, where you are directly affected by the matter in question, or where you feel you have been victimised for an act of whistleblowing, you may raise the matter under this grievance procedure.
- 3.6 This procedure does not apply to grievances concerning two or more employees (collective grievances) raised by a representative of the Trade Union or other Representative Body. These will be dealt with as appropriate to the facts of the case.

- 3.7 Collective grievances can be made where there are two or more employees with the same grievance. However, issues that are the subject of collective negotiation or consultation with the trade union will not be considered under this procedure.
- 3.8 This procedure should not be used in situations where the employee simply disagrees with a reasonable management instruction from a manager.
- 3.9 It may be appropriate for the matter to be dealt with by way of mediation depending on the nature of your grievance. This involves the appointment of a third-party mediator, who will discuss the issues raised by your grievance with all of those involved and seek to facilitate a resolution. Mediation will be used only where all parties involved in the grievance agree.

4. Confidentiality and data protection

- 4.1 It is the aim of the Academy to deal with grievance matters sensitively and with due respect for the privacy of any individuals involved. All employees must treat any information communicated to them in connection with grievance matters as confidential.
- 4.2 Employers and employees, and anyone accompanying them (including witnesses), must not make electronic recordings of any meetings conducted under this procedure.
- 4.3 During any action, including any decisions taken under this procedure, the Academy will collect, process and store personal data in accordance with our data protection policy. The data will be held securely and accessed by, and disclosed to, individuals only for the purposes of completing the grievance procedure. Records will be kept in accordance with our [Workforce Privacy Notice], our [Retention and Destruction Policy] and in line with the requirements of (i) the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (unless and until it is no longer directly applicable in the UK) and any national implementing laws, regulations and secondary legislation, as amended or updated from time to time, in the UK and then (ii) any successor legislation to the GDPR or the Data Protection Act 1998.

5. Raising grievances informally – Step 1

- 5.1 We believe that most grievances can be resolved quickly and informally through open communication and discussion with your line manager. We would always aim to resolve your grievance informally where possible. If you feel unable to speak to your manager, for example, because the complaint concerns them, then you should speak informally to the Head of School or a more senior manager. If this does not resolve the issue, you should follow the formal procedure below.

6. Formal written grievances – Step 2

- 6.1 If your grievance cannot be resolved informally you should put it in writing and submit it to the Head of School indicating that it is a formal grievance. If the grievance concerns, or is raised by, the Head of School it should be submitted to the Executive Head Teacher.
- 6.2 The written grievance should contain a brief description of the nature of your complaint, including any relevant facts, dates, and names of individuals involved. In some situations, we may need to ask you to provide further information. You should also state what your desired outcome would be to resolve the situation.

7. Investigations

- 7.1 In some cases, it may be necessary for us to carry out an investigation into your grievance. The amount of any investigation required will depend on the nature of the complaint and will vary from case to case. It may involve interviewing and taking statements from you and any witnesses, and/or reviewing relevant documents. The investigation will usually be carried out by the Head of School or Senior Manager or someone else appointed by the Head of School. In the case of an investigation into a complaint against the Head of School the Executive Head Teacher will determine who will carry out the investigation. In the case of an investigation into a complaint against the Executive Head Teacher the Chair of Trustees will determine who will carry out the investigation.

- 7.2 You must cooperate fully and promptly in any investigation. This may include informing us of the names of any relevant witnesses, disclosing any relevant documents to us and attending interviews, as part of our investigation.
- 7.3 The employer may initiate an investigation before holding a grievance meeting where the employer considers this appropriate. In other cases, we may hold a grievance meeting before deciding what investigation (if any) to carry out. In those cases, we will hold a further grievance meeting with you after our investigation and before we reach a decision.

8. Right to be accompanied

- 8.1 You may bring a companion to any grievance meeting or appeal meeting under this procedure. The companion may be either a trade union representative or a colleague. You must tell the person holding the grievance meeting who your chosen companion is, in good time before the meeting.
- 8.2 Should you choose to bring a companion to the hearing, you will be responsible for making these arrangements and for providing your companion with any paperwork that they require for the meeting.
- 8.3 At the meeting, your companion may make representations to us and ask questions, but should not answer questions on your behalf. You may request an adjournment to speak to them privately at any time during the meeting.
- 8.4 Acting as a companion is voluntary and your colleagues are under no obligation to do so. If they agree to do so they will be allowed reasonable time off from duties without loss of pay to act as a companion.
- 8.5 If your chosen companion is unavailable at the time a meeting is scheduled, you may propose an alternative time for the meeting to take place and so long as the alternative time is reasonable and within five working days after the original scheduled date, we will postpone the meeting. If your chosen companion will not be available for more than five working days afterwards, we may ask you to choose someone else.
- 8.6 We may, at our discretion, allow you to bring a companion who is not a colleague or union representative (for example, a member of your family) as a reasonable adjustment if you have a disability, or if you have difficulty understanding English.

9. Grievance meeting

- 9.1 The employer will arrange a grievance meeting, normally within 5 working days of receiving your written grievance, usually held by the manager receiving the grievance or an appropriate Senior Leader.
- 9.2 You and your companion (if any) should make every effort to attend the grievance meeting. If you or your companion cannot attend at the time specified, you should inform us immediately and we will try, within reason, to agree to an alternative time.
- 9.3 The purpose of a grievance meeting is to enable you to explain your grievance and how you think it should be resolved, and to assist us to reach a decision based on the available evidence and the representations you have made. Everyone involved in the process is entitled to be treated calmly and with respect. The Academy will not tolerate abusive or insulting behaviour from anyone taking part in grievance procedures and will treat any such behaviour as misconduct under the disciplinary procedure.

- 9.4 After an initial grievance meeting we may carry out further investigations and hold further grievance meetings as we consider appropriate. Such meetings will be arranged without unreasonable delay.
- 9.5 We will write to you, usually within 5 working days of the final grievance meeting, to inform you of the outcome of your grievance and any further action that we intend to take to resolve the grievance. We will also remind you of your right of appeal. Where appropriate we may hold a meeting to give you this information in person.

10. Appeals – Step 3

- 10.1 If the grievance has not been resolved to your satisfaction you may appeal in writing to the Head of School, stating your full grounds of appeal, within 5 working days of the date on which the decision was sent or given to you.
- 10.2 We will hold an appeal meeting without unreasonable delay, normally within 10 working days of receiving your written appeal. This will be dealt with impartially by the Head of School if they have not previously been involved in the case (although they may ask anyone previously involved to be present). Where the Head of School has made the decision at the grievance meeting the Executive Head of School will hold the appeal meeting. You have a right to bring a companion to the meeting (see paragraph 8.)
- 10.3 The employer will confirm a final decision in writing, usually within 5 working days of the appeal hearing. This is the end of the procedure and there is no further appeal

11. Collective Grievances

- (a) If you and another employer (or more than two of you) have identical grievances and all wish them to be addressed in the same grievance process, you and your colleagues can raise a collective grievance via this grievance procedure. You and all your colleagues must agree (without any pressure being exerted on staff members to join the collective process) to do this.
- (b) If you and your colleagues do not entirely voluntarily agree to this arrangement or if your grievances are not identical, the Academy will arrange to hear your grievances on an individual basis.
- (c) If you and your colleagues are all members of the same trade union, your trade union representative can (if you all wish him or her to do so) raise the grievance on your behalf. Alternatively, you and your colleagues can agree to nominate one of you to act on behalf of all of you.
- (d) Your collective grievance will be managed in accordance with Steps 1 to 3 above. However, the written collective grievance statement should also:
- (i) Identify you and each of your colleagues who wish to raise the grievance;
  - (ii) Identify any nominated trade union representative or colleague to represent you all;
  - (iii) State that you have all voluntarily consented to use the collective grievance procedure;
  - (iv) Confirm that you understand that the grievance will give each of you the right to only one collective grievance meeting, one identical outcome (if applicable), one appeal meeting and one identical appeal outcome.
- (e) If, following the grievance outcome, some employees are satisfied with the outcome and do not wish to proceed to an appeal, the request for an appeal should clearly identify those withdrawing from the process and those wishing to pursue the appeal.

11.4 Disciplinary Proceedings

- (f) In the event the grievance is upheld (either following the hearing or after an appeal), and if there is evidence to support such a course of action, the nature of the allegations may result in the Academy instigating the organisation's disciplinary policy against individuals identified of potential misconduct as a consequence of this procedure.

11.5 Review of policy

- (g) This policy is reviewed and amended every 3 years by the Trust in consultation with the recognised trade unions. We will monitor the application and outcomes of this policy to ensure it is working effectively.
